RE: Follow-up Class Evaluation
DATE: August 21, 2009

Some time ago you attended the No Longer Together, But Parents Forever class and indicated you would be willing to participate in a follow-up class evaluation. Please complete the short evaluation below and return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope. This evaluation is very important as I continue to make changes and improve the quality of the program. Thank you!

1. Since the completion of the No Longer Together, But Parents Forever class, the communication with my ex-spouse or co-parent partner has . . .

Improved Stayed the same Gotten worse

Example(s):

2. Can you give an example of how you are a better co-parent as a result of taking this class?
3. Have you returned to court or do you plan to in the near future concerning co-parenting issues that could not be resolved out of court?

No Yes - issue(s):

4. Some of the most important ideas, learning, or skills I gained from these sessions are:
